

What Others Say About Allegheny West Magazine

Since PTI opened its North Fayette Campus during the summer of 2000, Allegheny West Magazine has been our primary voice to residents, families and employers in the local township and surrounding communities. When we want to share news, announce events, and publicize college offerings we know can count on this publication to help us get the work out.

– Linda Allan, Pittsburgh Technical Institute

.....

We have confidence in Allegheny West Magazine to reach members of our community time and time again. With great editorial content and community information, Allegheny West Magazine ensures a great read for residents of the western Pittsburgh suburbs. - Casey Goodman, Pittsburgh's Ohio Valley General Hospital, Marketing and Public Relations

.....

"We have advertised through Allegheny West Magazine for many years. Allegheny West Magazine reaches many of the communities that Clearview serves, so the publication is a helpful tool for informing community residents about the many benefits of joining a Credit Union. We're also able to keep residents updated about Clearview's involvement in area communities, plus inform them about the products and services that Clearview offers."

- Thomas M. Huff, Marketing Manager, Clearview Federal Credit Union

.....

I just wanted to send a heartfelt "Thank You" for everything you do with your magazines, Allegheny West. Not only is it always beautifully done but the information you offer is informative and timely, easy to understand and so vital to our community. I can safely say that yours is the only magazine I read cover to cover, including all the advertisers! While I just read that being a magazine publishing business owner was your dream, I thank you for including so many of us in your dream -- we are all the better for it. – Cynde Harris, Findlay Township

.....

Number one on the top of that list of folks who create a sense of community is Allegheny West magazine. Thank you for pulling us all together. Thank you for the gentle reminders to your readers to support the MFPA's productions and other community events, and thank you for making us all feel part of something bigger. I hope to see you at this year's productions, and again, thank you for supporting these wonderful students. — Tammy Townsend Director, Montour High School Musical

.....

I have always had great response when one of my events are featured in Allegheny West Magazine. Any time an event is posted in the print publication, I get lots of calls and interest. I look forward to reading my copy of AW when it arrives, because I enjoy seeing good news and learning about the local businesses in the community, as well as the achievements of the local students and other community members. I think everyone feels the same way. Pat has spent over ten years connecting our community with local businesses, schools and resources. It's because of reading the magazine every month that I have become aware of the many non-profits and community resources that are offered in our region. I appreciate the valuable information provided, and I recommend advertising in the Allegheny West publications to everyone because its affordable and it works!

– Beth Caldwell, Executive, Pittsburgh Professional Women

.....

You have done us proud with this great magazine issue! I'm so grateful to you folks for this fine publicity, especially because it's in time for the 20th celebration. To top off everything, you will be with us at the event – what could be better! Thanks a bunch!

– Stan Sattinger, Montour Trail Council

.....

Allegheny West magazine has given my business excellent visibility to the residential areas that are relative to my business. Pat's magazine design and content are one that is a desire to read and view by all each month it is published. That means people see my ads. Pat has been designing my ads over the years. She is always creative is new designs both artistically and with the message. – Marianne King, Owner, Fitness for Life

.....

I was first introduced to Allegheny West magazine through the mother of one of my students at the Carnegie Performing Arts Center in Carnegie. She read the magazine as did many other parents. I did get in touch with Pat Jennette and have used the magazine to promote dance studio events and performances at the Andrew Carnegie Music Hall ever since. Pat is always helpful and considerate, genuinely interested in promoting my dance studio and performances. As a non-profit our budget is small but Allegheny West helps us work in mighty ways — Monica Ryan, Director, Carnegie Performing Arts Center

.....

When I first opened Karen Prunzik's Broadway Dance Studio in 2007, I contacted Pat Jeannette from Allegheny West Magazine. I told her I wanted to put an ad in her magazine and asked if she would consider doing a story on the opening of our new school. She did better than that. She gave us the cover. That cover story jump started our studio like you would not believe. Since then, I make sure I advertise as often as possible in the Allegheny West Magazine and every time I do, I am sure to get a half a dozen or more phone calls from new customers the very day the magazine is distributed. I am always amazed at how many people read the Allegheny West Magazine. But then again, before I opened my business, I was one of those people.

– Karen Prunzik, Owner, Prunzik's Broadway Dance Studio

.....

Your kindness and willingness to help nonprofits amazes me. Thanks for being a good friend to Focus on Renewal.

– Chris Crytzer, Focus on Renewal